

Bainbridge Island, a perfect place to spend a day, evening, or weekend, is an easy, scenic 35-minute ferry ride from downtown Seattle. Mt. Rainier and the Olympic Mountains provide a stunning backdrop to this amiable island community that successfully blends its Pacific Northwest heritage with a casual, artistic, forward-thinking sensibility. The result is a vibrant, charming downtown that welcomes visitors year round.

From Seattle, walk aboard a Washington State Ferry at Pier 52, located at the foot of Marion Street. You can drive aboard too, but you won't need your car since downtown Bainbridge is only a five-minute walk from the ferry terminal.

For Island information, visit the Chamber of Commerce Visitors' Information Center located up the street at Highway 305 and Winslow Way. Many of your questions can be answered just by asking any friendly merchant or Island resident.
